Name: GRACE WINDY

How did you hear about this course?

TFL Re-Activate Programme through a government agency sign up.

What were you doing before starting this course?

I freelance and have been looking for work.

What motivated you to enroll on this course?

This particular course was advertised for women only and I was eligible. I've been trying to secure work in my field and have been unsuccessful. I saw this as an opportunity to find out about a new industry.

What are you hoping to achieve by the end of this course?

Gain more confidence and see what viable opportunities are available with my background and the work experience I have.

How have you found your 2 weeks at the Earls Court Skills Centre?

Very inspiring! It's great to hear all about the industry and connect with industry figures, the knowledge I've gained. To be honest I came in not expecting to find out too much. Donnagh is fantastic course tutor. Entertaining and enthusiastic.

What would you say to others considering joining a similar course with The Skills Centre?

I would recommend. The team are friendly and supportive and you'll learn lots!
 In terms of this particular course (as advertised) we did the programme wasn't followed but replaced with in my opinion - more useful and enriching experience - site visits and industry figureheads.
